

The Baltimore Bibliophiles

A Literary Miscellany - September 1, 2020

Binnie Syril Braunstein, Editor

Kelmscott Bookshop Newsletter: September. Featuring a sale on Education, African History, and Science & Technology. Scroll down through the newsletter for other interesting items, including information on a virtual antiquarian book fair,.
http://bit.ly/September Newsletter 2020

Literary Miscellaneous Tidbits from Susannah Horrom:

If anyone is interested in comics, have a look at the Avery Hill Publishing Newsletter.
<https://mailchi.mp/e759b51dc6f8/avery-hill-publishing-retailer-newsletter-9378680?e=892fe2ace2>

John Neal Books is featuring information about online classes in Calligraphy.

https://www.johnnealbooks.com/prod_detail_list/online-classes

Book Arts & Special Collections and San Francisco History Center: September 2020 - What's Online?

<http://www.libraryaware.com/2462/NewsletterIssues/ViewIssue/e018a187-ec1d-4646-943f-b72af671ed9c?postId=0bfd1bcb-855c-4d2c-b5ad-f5d3cdab8df5>

Link to the ABAA Blog:

<https://www.abaa.org/blog/post/rarebooknews>

ABAA e-Newsletter: The Latest Rare-Books Catalogs

<https://mailchi.mp/abaa/abaa-e-newsletter-rare-books-for-summer-afternoons-3368212?e=44e32390e4>

And from yours truly, a fun fact from Book Riot about authors featured on the TV program, Jeopardy!

https://bookriot.com/jeopardy-contestant-authors/?utm_source=Sailthru&utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=Riot%20Rundown%20090120&utm_term=BookRiot_TheRiotRundown